“ Thanks Andrew, you have always been so kind to me. The last time I saw you was when my Dad, Leroy Alan Davis, was in the hospital in late 2013. You gave me a good hug and wished your cousin well. My Dad always talked so highly of you. I'm sorry I didn't know sooner, as I've been busy dealing with my Dads cancer, hospice and work. My dad will be joining you very soon and what a warm welcome he will get. to the family, I'm deeply sorry and I truly understand. God bless you all

“ Dear Susan, Brad, grandchildren, Linda and David, I am very saddened to hear of Andy's passing. He was such a sweet, kind man. I was always greeted with a big smile and a hug from the first time we met. I know he will be missed very much. I pray you will feel of the Savior's love and the peace and comfort the gospel brings. The joy is in knowing that families are eternal and that you will be together again. I wish I could be with you at this time but I am serving a mission in the CA Sacramento Mission. Love and prayers,

“ To the Terry Family: I felt a loss when I was notified of Andy's passing. I will miss him at our monthly Provo High School luncheons with some of our schoolmates. Thanks you Susan for bringing him to our little get-togethers. I was living in Ohio when Andy and Nyra moved to Mansfield. They were a great addition to our stake, and I was even happier when they accepted my invitation to come work with us in the Washington DC Temple. They were both so thoughtful and competent. I'm rather jealous, though, since he is now with his companion and I'm still waiting to be with mine again. Forgive me for not getting to the viewing or funeral, I didn't get the word until Thursday night and I had some assigned sealings to do on Friday morning. I'm sure Andy would understand that kind of scheduling problem. My love to the family and best wishes for the future.
