“ Hace algunos años conocí a Ariel en la Iglesia. Yo estuve muy poco tiempo allí en Lujan, Mendoza, Argentina. El estaba a muy poco tiempo de irse a la misión. Yo le regale una corbata; esa corbata me la había obsequiado el Elder Thompson, que es quien me bautizo en la Iglesia de Jesucristo de los santos de los últimos días. Por lo que esa corbata era muy valiosa para mi y a pesar de que no eramos muy cercanos, vi a Ariel tan feliz de irse a la misión, que decidí regalarla. Realmente su deseo de servir al Señor como misionero, su voluntad de dar esos dos años al servicio de Dios, fue para mi un gran ejemplo en ese momento. Se que ese mismo Dios al que Ariel sirvió con tanta fuerza y fe en su misión, es el que dará consuelo a su familia. Se que las familias pueden ser eternas. Se también que un día todos podremos resucitar y que todo dolor será sanado, toda oración será respondida y un dia toda pena sera reemplazada por el gozo de volvernos a ver.

“ I meant Ariel a few years back. He was a delight. Just the kind of person my daughter Karla could spend her life with. I really got to know Ariel through facebook because I couldn't visit Utah enough because of my health issues. He enjoyed all holidays to the fullest. He had the greatest smile, & people really liked his genuine personalities. He was good to Karla's kids. Karla & Ariel got to enjoy the good things of life together like travel, intimate times together, & everyday life. I never got to meet his lovely daughter. In future times she will look back with fond memories of her Dad. I know he will be missed by my daughter Karla. God will be with Karla through these struggling times. He will rest in peace because of all the people who loved him. Deanna & Nancy.

“ He was a very good man and a blessing to everyone who knew him. I had the privilege to travel on a business trip with him many years ago, and worked with him for some years afterwards. His kindness was well known. My condolences to his family, his friends, and the entire community that surrounded him. I have no doubt his loss will be felt very deeply.

“ I had the joy to work with Ariel for a number of years. His perspective on life, his humor, and the occasional repartee re: Soccer made the day go by and kept spirits high. To have an influence like that in your life is a blessing, and I am thankful for it. He will be missed by anyone who had him in their life.

“ I had to spend a couple days trying to find this photo, after hearing about the lost of our dear friend Ariel, finally found it in my hard drive, I was just new to the company at this time and Ariel helped a lot getting me up to speed on the Block Side of the VNX Array, he is always happy to help, have a fun and work hard at the same. I still remember one day we were practicing volleyball one morning in a park in Daybreak, it was Ariel, Emerson and I that was their early that morning, we all look pretty tan, and this one white lady walked up to us and asked if we do yard work hhhh, I turn to the lady and start explaining where we work and stuff but Emerson said dont even bother explaining, we know who we really are now hhhh, we had a good laugh and went on with our day. We love you Ariel and pray for comfort for your family, I remember you bought your daughter to the volleyball this day.
Nos vemos en los cielos algun dia
