“ The world has lost a wonderful and wise role model. Arline had a bottomless heart and found joy in utilizing her many domestic talents and skills while serving others. After I gave birth to my first child I didn't fully comprehend her love and devotion, but in the years following after giving birth to a second child I began to understand and realized what a remarkable woman she truly was, this mother of nine. May your family continue to be blessed with memories of your mother's unconditional love, contagious laughter, and how she lived life to the fullest. With admiration, Shelley Day

“ I loved Arline! She was fun and silly and you could just be yourself around her! We went to a few doctor appointments together and she was always so grateful - she wanted to treat me to a corn dog or some other fun lunch!! She always talked a LOT about her family, so I feel like I know all of you! She was so tired and wanted to do so much more for the past few years, but she just couldn't. I'm glad she doesn't have to hurt any more, but boy, will I miss her a LOT!!! Thanks for taking such good care of her!! God bless you all! Love, Evelyn Caldwell

“ I have many fond memories of Arline and her family. Some of our children grew up together. We lived in the same neighborhood and attended the old Salem 1st Ward together We celebrated some wonderful Christmas parties and Firesides in their home. Arline and Clara Jane Woodhouse and Joan Thorpe, sang together for so many wonderful years. I loved all three of them. They are a part of my young married years. Arline was my friend, I loved her quick wit, great smile, and happy laughter. Her life was not without trials and challenges, however, she persevered, made the best of what came her way. I'll always be grateful for the loving friendship she shared with me. And I can't help but wonder if she and Janey and Joan are singing for the angels now. I send my love to all of you grown up children that called her mother. I know she loved each one of you dearly, your children and great grandchildren .

“ I grew up in Salem and went to school with Wayne. I also remember your mom singing with Clara Jane, Joan and the "Singing Mothers".

A very special lady.
