“ Brenda has been a neighbor and friend for many years. She was a kind, humble person, had a testimony of the restoration and the Savior. She was willing to help others and she and Jan were always looking for ways to reach out to others. She fought several health challenges and is now reunited with her dear husband. She was special and we want Eric, Michael, Shawn and Sara to know we love them and our thoughts and prayers are with them. The Bruno's

“ Our love to Eric, Michael, Shawn and Sara. Your mother has been a dear friend for so many years. I used to walk with her—before Sara was born! She would always call, excited about a new discovery in her family history, or a quilt she was making for a new baby, or a letter she had written to a missionary. She was full of love and testimony, which she shared in service. Life has been so hard for her the last few years. I can only think how very happy she is now. I also know how much she loves you, her dear children and grandchildren. She will be watching over you with all her heart.

“ Brenda is an amazing person with the biggest heart of gold! She wrote me all the time while I was on my mission as she did with so many other missionaries. She always welcomed me & so many others over for Sunday dinners (some of my best UT memories). She's one of the most humble people I know. She cared & love people & loved to serve. She loved the gosple & always let it show. She definitely left the world a better place. I wish I could make it to the funeral but Mike, Eric, Sara, & Shawn you guys will be in my thoughts & prayers all day & the days after.

“ Brenda was a very dear friend of my mom and such a sweet and caring person. She loved to serve others and make people happy. I remember she would always make beautiful baby blankets for my sisters kids and she also did blankets for my brother and myself. She will be missed by all the lives she touched everyday. Peace and comfort to you Sara and Mike and Shawn and Eric.

“ Brenda helped shape my life. She became friends with my mom in college and they kept in touch. She was so gracious and opened her home up whenever we came in from out of town. I remember how organized and neat she was, only keeping things her family needed and giving away anything she no longer needed. I remember her sewing area in use, always making a blanket for the next baby born she knew and her computer was always generating cards to take to the temple, which she did regularly. She was such a good friend especially when I moved to Orem. I regret not visiting her in the nursing home. Thanks for touching my life, you will always be remembered and loved in my heart. I hope your kids know how much you loved them.

“ Brenda and Jan were our neighbors for about 5 years, she was so kind and was a great neighbor. She loved being a stay at home mom. She was always so helpful to us helping take our kids when we need to take our baby to Primary Childrens Hospital. I am so glad she is free of pain. I'm so sorry for Eric, Michael, Shawn and Sara..

“ Brenda and I were college roommates for several years, and kept in touch over the years. I respected and admired her, and appreciated her friendship. Her life was a great example of courage and determination, faith, endurance, humility, true friendship, and generosity. My college memories include hearing her leave the apartment every weekday at 4:15 a.m. to go to early-morning custodial jobs on campus, in order to put herself through B.Y.U.; enjoying pieces of music or poems she had found and liked and wanted to share; participating together in student wards, as the only active member of the Church in her family, where she was always a faithful and thoughtful visiting teacher; and, when she became engaged to Jan, seeing her staring at her left hand in quiet moments as her engagement diamond sparkled on her finger. Her children and grandchildren have a great heritage, and can be very proud of who she is and of being a part of her family.

“ Brenda was such a great example of service, faith, and testimony of the gospel. She faithfully wrote to the missionaries in our ward, made baby blankets for new arrivals, and served diligently in any capacity she could. I have always admired her for her testimony in action. May her children and grandchildren feel peace and comfort in the fact that families are forever.
