“ Cindy and I would talk for hours about anything and everything. We'd loose track of time and it would be 4 or 5 hours later yet it didn't seem to be like that much time had passed. Cindy was a wonderful, amazing, intelligent, beautiful, loving, caring women who was and is my hero! Cindy had the gifts of Courageousness, fight, strong will, stubbornness and faith. Cindy always was there for Virl and and I as we for her. We love you Cindy and miss u so very much! Thank you so much so very much for all you did and for being part of my life and my family!

“ How I got to know Cindy is through her daughter Jessica and her son in law John. I knew right then she was a gift for each of her family members and friends. Cindy had a unique talent, quality or virtue. Cindy shows her love and support to her beloved family and friends. She left us with a spiritual gift that only Heavenly father can understand. As we look into the angel part of her spiritual life we can't imagine how it would be to see our loved ones who have passed on to the spiritual life. We know that Cindy Sacrifice and accompanied every aspect of our lives, by pushing us along when we began to drag, slowing us down when we raced ahead. She helped us find our proper place in life. She lightened the heavy moments and tempered the lighter ones. She worked to blend the family together like she would want it to be. As the family started the funeral plans they knew that Cindy would want her funeral filled with lovely hymns, complete with harmony. Cindy was a woman who had faith, testimony, love, dedication, and good humor will endure and continue to touch lives through the ages.

“ I always loved talking and sharing with Cindy. Even though she was my husbands cousin she was part of my family. We had a bond that even her passing won't change. Gods speed my friend, give the sisters love, aand hug my son. I envy you and you will be missed

“ Cindy was a very special person. Even though some had problems with her I never did. She was a very good cousin to me and all of my family members. Sister and brothers. I'll miss you calling to vent. I have had to stop myself several times since I heard that you had left us. To keep from calling you. I miss you dearly my cousin. Hugs to my loved ones up there. I love you.
