

Cooper Davis Hoskyns

September 13, 1988 - October 11, 2020

Cooper Davis Hoskyns died October 11, 2020 at the age of 32. He was born September 13, 1988 in Charleston, South Carolina to Nancy Sailors McNeil and Robert N. Hoskyns. Cooper is best described as a feeling. He lit up every room he entered and wanted to be everyone's best friend and he was to so many. He could make you laugh or smile in just a matter of seconds. He would sing you a song, speak in a funny voice, or dance just to cheer you up. Cooper always made you feel good and loved. He was blessed with a beautiful voice and passion for creativity. He was a natural comedian and always saw the good in others more than they saw in themselves. He sought the lonely, the downtrodden, and the outcast. More than just a feeling, Cooper is an example to us all of the true love we need to show to others.

He is survived by his soulmate Lauren E. Feldman, parents Robert N. Hoskyns and Nancy S. McNeil, grandmothers Beverly S. Frederick and Caroline D. Hoskyns, siblings Wesley (Michelle) Hoskyns, Brick (Katelyn) Hoskyns, Lillie Hoskyns, True Hoskyns and his Grey Ford Mustang GT. He is preceded in death by grandfathers Carlos W. Sailors and Wesley F. Hoskyns, uncle Rex E. Sailors, and cousins Miranda Sailors and Camron Loosli.

“ When Cooper was three weeks old, I flew to Charleston, SC to visit Bob and Nancy and to see my newest nephew. When I arrived, he was asleep in a blue cloud in Nancy's arms. I immediately noticed that he had an astonishing amount of hair- Hoskyns babies usually run bald until they can speak-and I blurted out, 'He's got so much hair!' I got very close to see him and Nancy sighed slightly. 'I know. There's not much I can do with it because it's so long, so I brush it over, but it makes him look like a little old man with a comb over!'...we both fell about laughing, and my auntie heart just melted and I knew that he would be my very dearest boy....and he always was. Cooper shot across the sky of our lives with charm, laughter, jokes and that naughty wink, but most of all, he could LOVE. He had the unique ability to make those he loved, feel both loved and special. Cooper always seemed to know when your cup needed filling, and he'd fill it to overflowing and more. He grew up with my children, and Bob and Nancy's children always felt like mine too, so this feels like losing a son.

I am shattered by our darling Cooper's passing, but I feel heartbroken for the unimaginable loss and all encompassing grief that his parents must feel. All of my love to Bob and Nancy, their boys and Lillie. May we hold onto our wonderful memories of Cooper, may we feel his love for us when we are low, and may we be comforted when we need it by the knowledge that we will hold Cooper again. All of my prayers, Cooper's Aunt Susan.xxxxx
