

David Crockett

September 17, 1939 - January 22, 2016

David Franklin Crockett, 76, died January 22, 2016, at his home in Highland, Utah.

Dave was born in San Francisco, CA, to Ann and Frank Crockett. His family moved to Berkeley, CA when he was a young boy. He loved sliding down the Berkeley hills on cardboard boxes as a youth.

Dave served an LDS mission to Belgium and France where he developed a love for language and culture. He studied and majored in music and French at Brigham Young University in Provo Utah. Shortly after graduation, he returned to California where Dave began his lifelong career in teaching. Dave taught language at various schools in San Jose California with the majority of his time at Leland High. He loved the youth and especially was fond of his English as a Second Language opportunities. He married Susan Kay Russ and was the proud father of six children. Music played a central role in shaping Dave's life. He shared his love of music with his children and would spend hours playing the piano every day. Many in Dave's life were fortunate to experience his extraordinary tenor voice. He was part of many church and community choirs as well as the BYU a cappella choir. Dave was frugal and mastered the art of couponing. After retirement, he moved to Utah. Dave was able to serve a second and third LDS mission with his wife Susan at the church Conference Center and Temple Square.

Dave is survived by his wife, Susan; six children, Noel Kemp (Christopher Kemp), Samantha Walker (Jonathan Walker), Dave Crockett (Carey Emmons), Sara Lindsay (David Lindsay), Brandon Crockett (Nikki Ricks), and Steven Crockett (Laura Lopez); 19 grandchildren; and brother William Crockett (Marcia Crockett).

“ On behalf of the Baumans, we are so sorry to hear of Dave's passing. Our heartfelt condolences go out to you, Sue, and your entire beautiful family. We have many fond memories from the time we lived across the street from you in Almaden, raising our young families. May your memories of Dave give you comfort and peace at this difficult time. All our love, Norma and Bob

“ My thoughts are with you, Sue. Thanks for letting me be a part of your lives for the short time that I was. I really enjoyed our visits and in discovering how small the world is, but in how far reaching one person's influence can be. My heart goes out to you at this bittersweet time.

“ I will miss my news update, and the conversations we had together. You've only been gone four days and I deeply miss you and your family. You where a great teacher and a wonderful husband to your wife. Your Children will have a hard time living the standard of life you showed them, for you where superior in your role as Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Teacher.
