“ There are many tears being shed for Jayde. She was a beautiful, sweet and gentle niece to adoring Aunts and Uncles, as well as many cousins and friends who loved her. We all celebrated her amazing dancing beauty and grace as well as her incredible talent as a hair stylist. When Jayde entered any room, she was always a light of happiness and joy. Then we saw the destructive side of addiction take away her future. We will forever love Jayde and are glad she is now home in Utah to rest in peace beside her dear mom and dad. Our prayers and love are with Hunter, Kassidee and Austin. She will be in our hearts forever.

“ My heart is so heavy. Jayde was my best friend and other half in Jr High and High school. We literally spent 24/7 together at school and dance and weekends. She was literally the BEST best friend I could have asked for and always made everything fun and it was never a dull moment. She made me a better person and loved everyone for exactly who they are!
I know Jayde is dancing in heaven right now! She has reunited with her mom and dad! Jayde was in need of the a warm comforting hug of our Savior and I'm sure she has felt more love and comfort from the atonement than she ever has before!
I am so grateful for Gods perfect plan of salvation and Christ's sacrifice and atonement that heals broken hearts and life's difficulties that Jayde knew all too well!
I know God is with her till we meet again! Love you Jayde
