

Emma Lu Rogers

June 3, 1929 - February 6, 2020

Emma Lu was born to Clinton Lamar and Emma Smith Luke in Idaho Falls. She was the second youngest of eight children. She spent her growing up years in Twin Falls, Idaho. She attended Brigham Young University where she met and married Marion Roscoe “Scully” Rogers. She was an active, vibrant young lady and loved socializing and establishing friendships, which were easily made. This was an attribute she carried throughout her entire life. Even in the waning, memory loss years at Highland Glen, when sitting in a group she made sure everyone was introduced and welcomed.

Lu and Scully enjoyed their lives together living in Hawaii and in Provo. She was an avid golfer and loved playing bridge with friends. Lu was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and shared her testimony and love of the gospel with many that she came in contact with.

While living in Hawaii, Lu enjoyed a 21 year career in the financial industry and was Senior Vice President at one of Hawaii’s largest financial institutions. She instituted and managed a subsidiary advertising agency, serving as its president. Lu also served on the BYU-Hawaii President’s Roundtable and the university’s School of Business Academic Advisory Committee. She also served several years on the LDS Hawaii Public Communication Council.

Upon retirement Lu and Scully would spend the warm months of the year in Provo but would head back to Hawaii with the first snow fell.

Lu is survived by her brother Norman, her children Scott (Susan), David, Jeri Lu (Tommy), Randy, Susie (Todd), 17 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by Emma Leonora, her last child who passed away a few hours after her birth, her husband Scully, her parents and 6 of her siblings.

“ What a genuine loving lady Lu was to all who came within her sphere of influence. We first met in Hawaii and almost immediately connected that we were cousins through Jesse N.. Smith (and also to Sculley on the Rogers line). Over the years we would have such fun in both Hawaii and Provo. Her great smile, her interesting stories of a life time of experiences, and her love for others made her a joy to be with. She and Sculley were a great team, and it's wonderful they're now reunited. My dear cousin/friend will be very much missed.
