“ Fernando was such a wonderful, kind man and a great neighbor. He always went out of his way to greet my family and I whenever we saw each other outside. I enjoyed our talks together and the stories he shared with me about Spain. He was always patient with me as he let me practice my Spanish with him. Fernando's example of quiet dignity, patience, and kindness blessed the lives of those who knew him. His positive impact on the lives of others has made this world a better place. He will be missed and remembered. I hope I have the chance to see him again some day.

“ Fernando Munoz was always very kind to me. He always made me feel welcome when I came over for home teaching. Once after a long night of Bishopric meetings we talked outside my house. He asked me how I was doing and where I had been so late. After telling him he thanked me for my service to the Lord and the Ward. A few days after our talk I found out he had cancer. I realize that I stood with a man that so lovingly appreciated me, while he had every right to be more concerned about himself. Fernando's Christ like example will be remembered.

“ Te voy a echar de menos compatriota mio. Llevo en mi alma tu ultimo testimonio, especialmente cuando compartistes que YA NO TENIAS MIEDO..... Gracias por tus buenos consejos, por tu amistad, por tu valentia y amor. No puedo esperar el dia de verte de nuevo y darte un abrazo y tener conversaciones sobre Spain. Nunca te voy a olvidar. Mi mas sentido pesame para Erin y el peque.

“ When I was in the Lee Ward, I always enjoyed Fernando's spirit and his presence in meetings. He was soft-spoken, but powerful. He will be missed.

“ Fernando was such a soft spoken and humble man. I loved his quiet humor and how willing he was to share his testimony with others. I am so happy friends and family will be able to remember Fernando each time they look into the face of his son. My faith and prayers are with Erin and Gabriel as they reflect on the life of a very important man.
