

Flávio Augusto Uliana Pimentel

October 31, 2007 - December 8, 2021

Flávio Augusto Uliana Pimentel was a caring, loving grandson, son and brother. He left this world suddenly and unexpectedly on December 8th, 2021 at the tender age of 14. He is survived by his grandparents Milton, Vera, Flávio, and Francisca, parents Alessandra and Wesley, and his brother Felipe.

Flávio was the long-awaited son. He was born on October 31, 2007. It took him a little longer than usual to learn how to talk and when he learned, he wouldn't talk much. He had an imaginary friend who accompanied him until he was about 4 years old, which is when he started talking more. He frequently pointed to the sky trying to show his imaginary friend or guardian angel and with limited vocabulary would say: he's there. From his earliest childhood days until his passing, Flávio was a joy to know and to be with.

He had a special talent with little children. When he became a big brother, it was love at first sight. They loved each other from the first moment, deeply. He was a caring big brother and Felipe's best friend.

When he was in fourth grade, he could hardly wait two more years to be in sixth grade to have the opportunity to be a helper for the kindergarten children. When his turn finally came, he was radiant, to have a sweet kinder buddy. The meetings with his kinder buddy were always his best time at school.

When he moved closer to his 2 and 3-year-old cousins, he constantly played with them, held them in his arms, and pretended to fly them like an airplane. He pushed them on the swing and tried to please them in every possible way.

As Flávio grew, it became evident that he was an intellectual as well as an artist. He wrote stories that were incredible, he had a very creative imagination. His grades in school always made his parents proud. He enrolled in an English honors class this year. He loved it and the teachers were very pleased with his academic performance and his good behavior. Among his artistic talents were sewing beautifully, cooking, and drawing very well. He was also loyal, careful, and strongly valued each of his friends. He saw everyone with pure eyes and heart, with love and respect.

During his early teens, Flávio became lean, tall, and naturally athletic. He practiced swimming lessons but didn't want to compete. The modern world has always been a difficult place for him. He had difficulty navigating the interpersonal relationships that have become so complex and fraught today. It was a very challenging time, his mind was very unfair to him, but he never lost his essence, his purity, goodness, and love.

A monument in our hearts,
Forever in our lives.

“ Flavio was an exceptional child; intuitive, creative, respectful and fun. I remember listening to he and my son in a brainstorm coming up with some rather intriguing stories. Flavio had an imagination that inspired but also had a gift for being able to reel my boy in when he'd gone too far into imagination land.

What an awesome young man! Unique in every way, honestly my favorite of my son's friends. The time that we shared with Flavio is a blessing to have been able to share. Flavio was gentle kinnd hearted, considerate, his spirit, a light.... which will shine in our hearts and memories.

I want to thank you guys (his parents) for opening your hearts and home to the friendship between our boys.

I don't have words or really know what to say to mom and dad.... this is a travesty beyond words. You're all in our hearts and prayers.

“ my name is savanah, i know i am really late for this but there is not one day i don't think about flavio he had the kindest heart, anyone, i ever knew, he was so caring and so nice to everyone, though me and he did not were not always on the best terms he always made me constantly laugh. in 7th grade i remember flavio would come to math class in the morning every day with a new water bottle, because he had broken the other one the day before in the same class, because of how clumsy he was, in 6th grade he was probably the smartest kid in my class, he was always ahead of our class in reading and making everyone laugh, though he is gone and we can not see his smile every day, he will always be in our hearts, he will always remind me of the times i was struggling and he helped me because of his jokes, and many days i wanted to stop everything because of what was happening in my life, even though we fought flavio was there to make me laugh

“ Mrs. Pimentel, When I came back to Chicago I was waiting for summer to come and come back to Utah on vacation and meet Flavio again and have a good time with him spend time, with him laugh and play games with him. Well I guess I can't do that anymore I found out what happened after Abdullah told me I didn't believe it at first because Flavio was like brave and strong he was always there for you whenever I can't see that anymore but go on my Balcony and look up in the sky and just talk to him I always wake up in the morning look up in the air and say "Goodmorning Flavio how are you" I can promise you that God will take care of Flavio because he took care of my Dad

“ I am honored Flávio called my son Mathew his best friend! They supported and encouraged each other through thick and thin. I know Mathew will cherish all his memories of Flávio and will honor his memory for life. As I look through messages and notes between the two boys, Flávios mind was always going a mile a minute. He was so wise beyond his years. I am certain he's doing amazing things on the other side. I will be forever grateful Flávio was in our lives and that my son had him as a best friend. Sending love, strength and peace to the Pimentel family.
