

Gloria C. Adams

June 28, 1931 - May 3, 2021

Gloria C. Adams of Springville, Utah, passed away at Heritage Gardens on Monday, May 3, 2021, at the age of 89. Gloria was born in Hollywood, California, daughter of Sylvan and Ida Chatwin. At age 4, Gloria and her family moved to Provo, Utah, where she later met Jack Clark whom she was married to for 22 years. She had five children; Linda (Walters), Christine (Haskell), Glen, Jack, and Merrill. Gloria was preceded in death by her husband Jack, as well as her children Glen, Jack, and Merrill.

Gloria then married and was sealed to Tom O'Neill in the Provo Temple. Throughout her marriage, Gloria resided in Orem where she served as the secretary in the Young Women's Presidency which she enjoyed. Later she served as Relief Society President at Orchard Park Care Center and loved the calling. Gloria was preceded in death by Tom and will be laid to rest next to him at the Orem Cemetery.

Gloria was able to find love and companionship with Bryce Adams, whom she later married. She resided in Springville for the remainder of her life. Gloria continued serving in the LDS church and was able to attend the Provo Temple often. Gloria started a group called "Forever Friends" which she spent many years entertaining and celebrating with her friends. Gloria loved parties and always had a punch bowl and goblets on every occasion. She loved working in her yard and always had beautiful flowers in her garden. Gloria was preceded in death by Bryce.

Gloria always took pride in herself and loved to dress up. She always wore jewelry and perfume. She loved to find reasons to celebrate and spend time with her friends and loved ones. Christmas was her favorite holiday and she always decorated her home with her beloved angel collection and a beautiful decorated Christmas tree. She also made her favorite Christmas foods every year which everyone loved, including fruitcake, jello salad, baked beans, and cheesy potatoes. She created many friendships throughout the years and was loved by many.

A graveside service will be held for Gloria on Monday, May 10th, at 11:00 am at Orem City

“ Gloria dressed up makeup on hair combed always looked great. She loved her missomary calling and was always greeting the other residents an making sure they were okay. I will miss her laughter, and wanting things done right now. What a special lady she was. If she was your friend you would have her friendship for ever. She will be missed greatly. Jackie Huff
