“ We were saddened to read in the paper this morning about the passing of Grant Southworth. As Live at Home Senior Couple Missionaries the past year we had met with Grant and Louise several times. Also when Louise was in the hospital and in the nursing home. Grant was always so mindful of her and her needs. We really appreciated them and their friendship. We visited Grant on the phone about a month ago and he seemed to be doing quite well--was considering selling his home and moving to a care center. He promised to let us know of his plans--unfortunately his plans got changed I guess! Anyway, to his family, please know that we had the fondest respect for him. Unfortunately we will not be able to attend the viewing nor the funeral--we will be in Wyoming at a Martin's Cove Missionary Reunion from Thurs to Saturday.
With Respect and Love,
Elder and Sister Martin

“ Grant was a good friend. He and his family lived in a home that was adjacent to our back yard in Kaysville in the 1960s. Grant invited me to work with him selling Prudential cookware when I returned from my mission in 1962. We worked for some time together and I always appreciated him and his family's friendship.
