

Grant Steven Brock

March 10, 1990 - January 16, 2021

Grant Steven Brock, 30, passed away January 16, 2021 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He was born on March 10, 1990 to Cleve and Disa Brock in Walnut Creek, CA. He grew up in Bend, OR, a place he always called home.

Grant was a man of admirable faith and an inspiration to those who knew him. He persevered through unique struggles and had a large capacity for love and joy. He served an LDS mission in Mozambique. He studied History at BYU and UVU in Utah where he met his wife and best friend, Tamara Carter. They married in the Sacramento, CA Temple in 2015. Grant lived big and loved big. He often said how much he loved his life. He was a brilliant musician and songwriter whose life and soul will live on through his songs and lyrics. He excelled at sports, particularly basketball. His zest and personality filled up every room he entered. He loved to gather all kinds of people, and to serve and include them throughout his life.

He is survived by his spouse, Tamara; his parents, Cleve and Disa Brock; and his siblings, Dane, Tara, Lissa, Paige, and Ammon.

“ Our family knew the Brock family as we lived on the same street in King's Forest. I had the pleasure of teaching Tara when she was a 6th grader in my class, and I was equally delighted when Grant became my student. Grant was funny, smart, kind, and respectful. He was a natural leader. I remember his sharp wit and the many times he made me laugh. Grant was also my daughter Sarah's friend. Needless to say, I was happy to see him on senior prom night as he escorted Sarah to the prom. I am so sad to hear of Grant's passing and send my heartfelt condolences to his family and loved ones. You are in my prayers.

“ I had the opportunity to serve as a missionary in Mozambique with Elder Brock. He was funny, kind, humble and brightened everyone's day during the hard times. Mozambique is a country of resilient people and we learned to be resilient. Brock continued to bless my life during our time at BYU through his music, friendship and example. His legacy, his faith and his music will live on forever. I'll see you again.
