“ Deanna,

Karen and I send our sincerest condolences on Greg's passing. He was such a dear friend and mentor to me. He took me under his wing while serving as counselors to Bishop Burton. He showed me how to magnify that calling.

The service you and Greg performed as ministers to our family over the years has meant so much to us. My first thought when facing a personal health crisis was to call Greg and receive a blessing at his hand. I can still remember the feeling of calm I felt after his blessing in your living room, though the words he spoke are now forgotten. He was truly a blessing in my life. I will miss him.

Know that we are praying that God will send you and your children peace and comfort as you deal with this loss. We know we will see Greg again and testify that he is free from the pains of mortality and has returned to Heaven to await the resurrection. Karen and I send our love.

“ My deepest condolences to you and the rest of the family. I rarely ran into all of you but I believe we all met at one time or another over the years. Greg and I were friends for 30+ years and enjoyed a lot of long conversations and discussions over the years when I was not working out of town. He will be dearly missed and remembered often. I will keep all of you in my prayers now and as life goes on. Hopefully, our paths will cross again.

“ We would like to express our sincere condolences to you and your family. With deep sympathy, we share your sorrow, after the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us. May God give you the strength to endure the pain you are going through and may he embrace you and comfort your family during this difficult time."Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'" -John 11:25
