“ I had the privilege of visiting Grandma many times during the summer every year because I had taken the task of mowing her lawn in Orem. That was such a big lawn. I remember that she would have me put the clipping all around the garden and she loved her garden. It would produce lots of vegetables and she had several fruit trees as well. Grandma always wanted me to come inside when I was finished mowing the lawn. She would give me a treat and she always had ice cold water in her fridge that was so cold and so refreshing. She also would insist that I get paid for my service of mowing. She was so nice and always gave me more than I deserved.

“ I remember visiting Grandma many times at the MTC. We would go around back where the loading trucks would show up and Grandma would meet us back there. She worked in the cafeteria. She always would welcome us and thank us for coming to visit. She would always give us several cookies that were meant for the missionaries but could spare a few for her grandkids. They were so yummy.
