“ To the Family and Friends of Janet S. Durrant,

Having been in your situation before, I wanted to express how deeply sorry I am for your loss. But more importantly, I wanted to share with you that one of the things that helped me pull through every time I lose a loved ones to death is the true knowledge from the Bible. Indeed when I found out that the Bible teaches that death isn't the end thanks to the resurrection promise made by our Heavenly Creator in Scriptures like (Isaiah 25: 8), (John 5: 28), (1 Corinthians 15:26), (Revelation 21:3 and 4), it gave me great comfort to know that I can one day see and enjoy the company of my dead loved ones again right here on earth when they are brought back to life at the last day and I know it can do the same for you in this time of sorrow. (John 11:24)Yes without the resurrection promise highlighted in the above cited Bible passages, there would be no hope of ever seeing our dead loved ones again because they would remain “.Conscious of nothing at all . . .” as their condition is described in Ecclesiastes 9:5, 10. However, mercifully, by means of the resurrection promise, Jehovah God has opened up the priceless opportunity for untold multitudes of people who have died to come back from the dead and enjoy eternal life on a soon to be earthly paradise in the near future. This means that you can have the heartwarming hope that someday, in God's new world, you can be reunited with your loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.—Mark 5:35, 41, 42; Acts 9:36-41. I know this may be hard to believe. However it's not a dream. The resurrection is a guaranteed promise made by Jehovah God, who according to Hebrews 6 verse 18 cannot lie. Furthermore, by resurrecting Jesus Christ, He has given us sound reason to trust in Him. If you wish to learn more wonderful truths, please contact the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses for a FREE Bible study. May you find comfort in the cited Scriptures, which give us hope for a wonderful future in God's upcoming new and righteous world! (Matthew 19: 28-30); (2 Peter 3:13)
