“ Jare Bear I love you. I'm sorry that life could be so rough sometimes. I find myself thinking of you constantly, aching inside. I walked into the gas station and one of your favorite Five Finger Death Punch songs was playing on the radio. Remember Everything. I will Jare, I do. I'll never forget you.

“ Jared, man, no words can describe how much you will be missed by your family and your friends! It feels like I've known you forever. Even though we weren't blood, you were my brother! I'll never forget all the fun times we had or all the trouble we caused growing up. Until we meet again, my friend!

“ Jared, my birthday brother. From the moment you were born I felt a connection with you and as you grew you became so strong and vital. Last month, the time we were able to share with our whole family has become more special than I could have imagined at the time. I am so happy that we were able to spend that time not knowing what would happen a few days later. Your light will continue to shine even though it is from heaven. I love and miss you Jared.

“ Jare Bear, I miss you so much. It's a constant ache in my heart. I can't close my eyes without seeing your face, I can't sit in silence without hearing your unique voice, your infectious laugh. I will never forget you. You came into my life when I was having the hardest time and you made my heart feel whole again. Now there is an incredible void that won't be filled until the day we reunite. I love you so much. I wish I had just one more day, one more hour. I miss you kid.

“ I'm really missing you right now Jare, you're the best uncle I could have ever wished for and it's been pretty hard without you bro.
I love n miss you more than words can even describe & ik you're doing good but it's just been hard for so many people to deal with you being gone. you made me feel so happy when all I felt was emptiness, and when I was sad you'd always tell me "when you're around me it's not okay to be sad, so be happy little girl, you deserve it" and I remember the exact day you told me that after I talked to you for about an hour. you were like my main man forsure, I knew I could always go to you if I was having a hard time coping with anything, man I miss youuuuu!!!! rest easy
