JENNIFER LAYNE GILBERT

8/25/1970 – 11/30/2021

Our sweet, precious, fun-loving Mother, Daughter, Sister, and Friend passed away on Tuesday November 30, 2021 due to complications from Covid-19.

Jennifer was the first child born to Christina Elaine Emmons and Kenneth Allen Youngberg on August 25, 1970, in Phoenix, AZ.

As a child she loved to dance. She participated in ballet, tap, and gymnastics and also played the piano and violin. She was also a good student. In high school, she was a cheerleader at Royal High School in Simi Valley, CA.

Jennifer was blessed with two sons, Blake Alexander Youngberg and Nicholas Taylor Simmonds. They were her pride and joy. As a single mom for the majority of her adult life, she worked hard to give them a happy life. Among the various places she worked, some of her favorite jobs included Olan Mills and working as a server at Los Hermanos and Chili's. She also worked for Marriott and Jet Blue later in life.

Jennifer was a bright, happy soul. She loved to give. She always chose the most thoughtful gift for a specific family member or friend. She loved making people laugh and lightened the mood whenever she was around.

She loved spending time with family and friends. She always enjoyed watching a good movie or favorite tv show (and making fun of the ones that weren't so good), going out to eat, going to see her favorite music group Chicago whenever they came to town, good long talks, traveling, and the beach.

She loved her Savior Jesus Christ and sought to follow His example by being kind, understanding, and forgiving to others. She loved going to the temple as often as she could to feel closer with Him. She was later asked to serve as a regular temple worker assisting others as they came. She only quit when her health no longer permitted.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Christina Reneer.

Jennifer is survived by her father, Ken Youngberg, stepfather, Douglas Reneer, her two sons, Blake Alexander Youngberg, Nicholas Taylor Simmonds, sister, Sandra Sofoifa (Marlon), brother, Matthew Reneer (Elise), stepsister, Paula Lucht, stepbrothers, Daniel Reneer, Randall Reneer (Julie), Bradley Reneer (Marne'), Christopher Reneer (Annie), David Whitman, and many nieces and nephews whom all will miss her.
