

John Krutsch

August 28, 1970 - May 6, 2016

John Peter Krutsch, 45, died at his home in Springville, May 6, 2016. John was born to Ken and Mina (Velles) Krutsch on August 28, 1970 at Travis Air Force Base, California.

John had a zest for life and an incredible sense of humor. As an educator for more than twenty years he taught children and adults alike. Besides his parents, John is survived by his wife Alison Haley (Briggs) Krutsch and six children, Kandis, Krista, Steven, Benjamin, Jennifer Lazenby (Randal II), and Jonathan Krutsch, his brother Robert Krutsch, sisters Anna Beckstead (Bart) and Jessica Cox (Travis) and his father-in-law Patrick Briggs and mother-in-law Mardi (Haley) Briggs. John is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

We are confident in the Savior's Atonement and the sealing power of eternal families. We will see John again and Ali will once more be reunited with her Prince.

“ I was extremely saddened to find today that John passed.

At the WebCT 2005 Impact conference I attended a session John gave called "How to Cheat Online". After all these year's its the only session I remember from the many conferences I have attended and I still use what I learned then in my job today.

As I type this, I'm watching his "Late Night Learning with John Krutsch - How to Cheat Online". I wanted to look him up to congratulate him on such an excellent video. Unfortunately I was a few months too late.

The world of online learning is lessened with his passing.

“ Thank you so much for your comment. I am just reading this and I know John would have been thrilled to know this. Teaching was his passion and he really wanted to make a difference in this world. He was definitely one of a kind.

“ John is an amazing son and he would say I have a remarkable wife. He would say to her “I more than love you”. “That’s Right”. He loves Ali and his children very much. We will miss him, too.” We are so lucky to have had him as a son.

“ Tonka had a shine in his smile and his eyes. His eyes would keep smileing and shining even after he stopped he broke more of my chairs then any missionary before or since. He almost could eat as much as me. Which according to him hadn't been done before. Tonka you are bomb. Always will be.

“ I'm not ready to share any memories I have of my brother. For me, they are things I hold sacred and close to my heart now. I will never forget the movies, payday dates, dresses, Pizza and coke, drawing, learning to ride a bike, skateboard, etc. I especially will never forgot the laughter. I miss you John, the world will never be the same without you. God be with you til we meet again.

“ Some of my funniest memories of my mission involved John. His wit and humor were second to none. Every memory of him brings a smile to my face. I am so sorry for your loss and can't image the feeling. But I do know that he is bringing laughter and joy to the others that are on the other side. Best wishes. Nate Williams

“ John and were missionary companions in Massachusetts. And we also served in the office together. He snores like a chainsaw. Shook the apartment. When I moved to Utah and he was recently married, he had a computer and would let me come over to his apartment and he'd help me out on my papers I had to write. Very fun guy and always happy.
See you on the other side brother.

“ I have such wonderful, funny memories of John, especially while we all lived in Spain, and when we went to see Star Wars: The Phantom Menace together...I will miss him, too. I love you all, Ali!

“ John and I were missionary companions in Boston. He is the greatest guy I know. I can't believe he's no longer a phone call away, I miss him already! But we have so many wonderful memories from the mission that I will hold on to. He always made me laugh, and helped me learn the creole language while we served the Haitian people living in Boston. Anyone who knew him will know that this mortal journey will never be the same now that he's gone. We lost touch after the mission, and after a long search I was able to reconnect only a few months ago. I am so thankful that we did. My love and prayers go out to his family and friends.

-till we meet again-

“ I am glad that we all reconnected a few years ago through social media. I am grateful that we got to spend some time together last summer sharing our lives with each other. John has a great laugh and a love for helping people.

I still swear that he only asked me out so he could meet and date Ali. Glad that all worked out well.

Love and prayers for his sweetheart and their family.
