“ Keisha, you are my guardian angel now. If a heart could drown in tears and pain, I would be beside you the moment you left me. My heart aches to be with you. I miss your voice, your laughter, and your love. No one should ever have to endure the pain of losing a sibling. You were too young and too many people loved you and needed you here. I hurt every moment of every day. I miss you my little sister. I miss you.

“ I didn't realize the Keisha had passed away until this morning. She was a very polite, very humble person and always a pleasure to work with. Indeed she did live her little daughter and spoke often of her. Sad that she was so young, but glad she is now at peace. God bless her and her young daughter.

“ Keisha, I feel like I have missed so much of you in the last few years. But I always thought that some day we would run back into each other because we were just suppose to. We would talk about all the crazy fun stuff we did in cross country. You were just full of such beautiful and fun personality. I miss you already.
