In Loving Memory of Kriss Halladay

Kriss Halladay, born and raised in Concord, California, left residing in Orem, Utah for the majority of her life, passing away on February 5th, 2018 at the age of 52, going on 53, this upcoming month. Kriss was born to Melba Telleson Hill Atkinson and Glen J Hill on March 2, 1965. Kriss is the youngest of five children, and attended Orem High School. She later on in life, had two beautiful and talented boys, Caz and Kragen. She met and carried on with life with Terry Jensen at her side, while raising her young boys along for the ride. Caz and Kragen, 29 and 25, known as her kids, though often thought of as hellions throughout the years, bared and built great relationships with their mum, which grew as the years went by.

Kriss was determined, hardworking, passionate, thoughtful, loving, memorable, full of heart and kindness, a best friend, a fighter, a cancer vixon, a good witch, a mother, a sister, a daughter, so much more, though an absolute force to be reckoned with. She was incomparable, unique, spunky, and full of life all throughout and even till this day as she carries it on past this life and within souls of close relatives and friends.

Kriss is a Bull, powering through anything that came to her and overcoming any situation of what life threw at her. Kriss dealt with plenty of health issues, which involved being diagnosed and overcoming cancer three times within her lifetime. Leading and developing related health factors, which were involved with her most of her life. Pushing through any situation, her kids were her #1's and priority. Carrying on, creating memories, and being there for them and with each other was her pride and joy. Her and their love flourished for each other, and nothing could ever take her away from them, they were not only family, her boys, and her most precious possessions and creations, though best of friends, and she fought and worked hard every single day of her life for them. Truest motherly love she bestowed upon Caz and Kragen.

She flourishes with us, is watching over, listening, guiding, and walking by your side boys; Caz, Kragen. Terry, family, friends...

Kriss you carry on in our hearts, souls, thoughts, memories, laughs, traditions, and on along side with each one of us. We promise to keep you alive, here, and still, until we meet with you again face to face, and continuously celebrate you and your accomplishments forever more. We thank you for everything and for being a part of us closely. Till we meet again, loveliest soul Kriss.

To the Moon and Back

From the new moon, to the blue lagoon
From the highest mountain, to the darkest pit
To when the candlelight is lit
All of me; loves all of you

From the twinkle in your eye
To the starlight of the sky
From the midst of a cocoon
To the start of a new bloom
To when we both set sail on an adventurous tale
All of me; loves all of you

From across the seven seas
To the buzz of all the bees
From the early chirps at morning
To the dimples in your cheek
From how softly you care to speak
To when you're feeling weak
From your glorious glow
To your illustrious soul
All of me; loves all of you

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I recently lost my loved one in death. This loss can be so overwhelming. Fortunately, I found comfort in God's promise that one day I would see my dear loved one again. (John5:28,29) May God give you the peace&comfort you need .(Philippians4:6,7)

“ I send you my condolences Terry, Caz, Kragen, family and friends. I'm so sorry and pray that our Heavenly Father's spirit is with you all at this time.

I met Kriss when her and her parents moved to Orem from California. She moved into the house next door to our family and we soon became great friends. We lived by the Orem cemetery so that became one of our favorite places to go. It was interesting to us to see the new graves and scare ourselves there. But one thing that we liked to do is take some of the flowers off the new graves. We were able to justify this because the flowers were going to die anyway and they would make us happy! We'd take them home and I would give them to my mom. That made it all ok. I think Kriss did the same with hers. Plus we were so naive.

Another of my favorite memories was me, Kriss, and Jeana hanging out and getting into mischief. We had so much fun together cruising Center street, I think was the name, in Provo, "borrowing" the car to just drive anywhere...we didn't have our licenses. Lol! We had many, many adventures, which I won't tell you, but ask Jeana if you want to know more! She was always so much fun and always so sweet. We lost track of each other as we grew but thanks to Facebook we got reacquainted a couple of years ago. She will be missed but I know she's so happy where she's at now.

“ My heart goes out to Terry, Caz,Kargen, Kriss was a great Friend,better half, and Mother. I was very fortunate to meet Kriss this last Dec. we cried when we met because we both have heard so much about each from our kids and then a few years ago I found out that she was part of the family through my sister-in-law. Can I say one big happy family, Kargen as been my kid for a long time. Kriss was a very special and strong and she loved everyone. This was not expected she will be missed deeply. Love you Kriss
