“ Lee was an investment adviser and I wholesaled an investment product which Lee distributed to his clients. Lee and I enjoyed going to Warrior and Giants games and we broke bread on many occasions. Lee visited my family home with his family which wasn't a usual practice in the business. It was rare to visit an advisers home however I was always at the McFadden house when in the area. Lee was good at keeping in touch and we did through job changes, divorces and moves. Thought we'd see each other again. Never believed he would lose this fight. I can feel Lee's presence looking at me in the picture-
He is missed.

“ I met Lee through the Brigham Bee's scooter club and rode on a few of the summer trips with them. Lee and Lisa are some of the kindest and inclusive people I know. Even though I only saw them a few times of year, it's like we could pick up where we left off. That's a rare kind of friendship and definitely one that will stay with me forever. The scooter rides won't be the same without Lee's big smile but his spirit will always be present.

“ I always loved bieng around Lee, at scooter rides or whenever. A recent memory was at a food truck roundup were a bunch of us met up and Lee greeted me with a hug and a kiss to my bald head, (pretty easy since he is a head taller then me)..he said "I've always wanted to do that" I love his gregarious nature! I'll miss you for now Lee.
