“ I would like to add my condolences to the many that have been given. To me, like many others, Linda acted like a second mother. From the first moment I entered the Jensen home, Linda and Larry took me in like one of their own. While at times it would be years between seeing them, upon meeting again Linda's face would light up and had every sincere desire to know how I and my family were doing. Thanks for helping shape my life forever.

“ Sweet Linda touched us all with her wonderful smile and kind ways. Our conversations were always wonderful, but our last one a couple weeks ago will be with me forever. She is an example to us all on how to love and appreciate family. She promised us a special favor in Heaven, as she did for many others and I suspect that favor has been taken care of as I write this. We have been blessed to know this special lady. Our prayers are with the entire family. May comfort and peace be with you in the loss of your beloved Linda. We love her and we love her family. We love you, Larry. Bel and Darold

“ I remember as a boy growing up in Weiser, Idaho, that the Hart family would come every year to visit Grandpa and Grandma Johnson and our family out on the farm on the Weiser Flat. Linda is about 4 years older than me. So I especially remember thinking that she and her sister, Sharon, were such cute girls and so grown up to a 12 year-old boy. Of course, I never told them that. Then, over the years we all got married, raised families and only in the last few years started getting together again regularly. Linda was always so gracious about having everyone gather at her house. Even in the last year or so, she was always cheerful when we saw her and tried to make others happy. The picture with the obituary is just how I like to remember her--with a big smile on her face. I'm sure she passed her test with flying colors. I wish we could come from our mission in Hong Kong to join with the family at this time but that isn't possible. Larry has a great reunion to look forward to--but we don't wish that anytime soon in mortal time.

“ Linda was truly a shining light amongst the Hart cousins. Always kind, always smiling, always at peace, even in times of great sorrow in her life. When she became ill, she still made heroic efforts to come to the Hart Cousins parties, where she and Larry were warmly welcomed. We will certainly miss her, but her memory will linger with us forever.
