“ I love this sweet woman with all my heart. I'm saddened that she had to go through so much pain for so long but joyful that she is now free of all pain and home with her heavenly family. She was a gifted, talented neighbor who made magnificent quilts. That is how I met Linda Williams. I went to her home on one occasion to see some of her beautiful creations and somehow she had heard that I took care of people's pets if they had to go away for awhile. She said she was hesitant to ask me but would I be willing to take care of their little black dog, Lexi, while she and Dale went on vacation. I, of course, answered I would be delighted. After that I visited her more and more often, to my delight and a strong bond of friendship developed quickly. She was easy to love. We would "chat" about everything going on in the world, about ourselves, our feelings, how and where we grew up, our children and grandchildren. Not too long ago we had a "chat" about dying. She said she wasn't afraid to die, it was just how. She said she had felt very brave and optimistic. That was her strength. Her bravery, her belief in the Atonement of Christ, her love for her sweet husband, Dale and her love for her family.

I am so grateful for her friendship and love and for Dale and their family. Someday we will be together again and continue our "chats".

Love, Pat Carr

“ Our brief but precious moments with Linda will be forever cherished by my family. Dale would lovingly share with me fond memories of some of Linda's amazing accomplishments in academics, as a professional, and most importantly as a dedicated mother and wife. I knew I had to have my wife and children meet her. And when they did, Linda took the time to ask each of them their names and their interests. She even gave them each a candy bar of their choice. Her genuine kindness, quiet courage and her beautiful smile, in the midst of her health challenges, was an example to my family of one who followed the Savior's counsel to endure to the end. Linda, Mi Ranchito won't be the same without you. Thank you for being a light to my family. ~ Aloha, Saliata and Maria Fano and children

“ Linda was my very best friend in the whole wide world. She was so kind and generous and my world is smaller and sadder because she is gone. I will treasure the many happy memories of trips we took together. And the many wonderful quilting memories. I will miss you my friend and look forward to the time when we will be together again.

“ Linda was a very, very dear friend of mine. When I would go to visit her she always had a happy smile and beautiful countenance. She had a positive attitude. "Everything is going to be OK," she would say. She always appreciated what I would bring to her, like the large print Readers Digests. Everytime I visited her, it was always me who had been up lifted. She presented me with one of her had made quilts, which I will always treasure. I will remember her for the eternities.

Linda brought a peace and love to our community when she and Dale moved in. We loved her honesty with kind words; and her appreciation for life. Our prayers for each of her family, especially Dale and the children and grandchildren to be filled with beautiful memories of her and the joy and love she gave to each of you. May you feel the Saviors love and peace for each of you too.

“ Linda was our friend and neighbor for only a brief time, but I felt instantly drawn to her sweet personality. She was not afraid to ask for help, and I had the opportunity to drive her to hair appointments a few times. She was always so positive, even when she had trouble walking and ended up lifting my spirits because of her courage. We took a trip to Kauai with she and Dale last summer and were amazed at her desire to do everything she possibly could. We had a wonderful time and were struck by her thoughtful kindness and upbeat attitude. Her beautiful quilts reflected her amazing spirit and creativity. Linda, you will be sorely missed!
