Lisa Robison, loving daughter, sister, aunt, and friend, passed away peacefully in her sleep at the age of 57 on November 13, 2021 at her home in Payson, UT. Lisa was born on October 23, 1964 to Russell and Gloria Robison in Reno, Nevada. She was the first of five children.

Growing up, Lisa lived in Nevada, Washington, California and New Jersey. As an adult she lived in Idaho, Minnesota and Utah. Lisa had a beautiful singing voice and loved to perform in plays in her youth, which included her ward road shows and her stake production of Saturday's Warrior. She was also in the choir of the Oakland Temple Pageant.

At the age of 15, Lisa met her best friend and bonus sister, Dianne Doying Burnham, while living in San Jose, CA. They became inseparable and stayed close throughout her life. Lisa was like a second mom to Dianne's son Marc, and grandma to Marc's son Conner.

Lisa loved children and worked as a nanny to many families in her late teens and early 20's. She has always loved children and had a special ability to connect with them. Lisa was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and had a strong testimony of the Gospel. In recent years she served as a primary teacher and loved teaching the children in her class. This calling brought her so much happiness and joy.

Lisa devoted much of her life to serving others. She worked in the medical field as a CNA in nursing homes and hospitals, where she thrived. This medical background helped her care for her father, Russ, in his last few years. And she spent the last year of her life helping take care of her mother, Gloria.

One of the greatest joys in Lisa's life were her dogs. Her sweet Bailey, who passed many years ago, and her beloved Zuri, who was by her side when she passed. Lisa and Zuri bot h adored each other. Lisa would often say Zuri was the love of her life and that she helped bring her peace and comfort.

Lisa is survived by her mother, Gloria Jean Owen Robison; her siblings, Michelle Robison, Melissa (Kevin) Poynter, Daniel (Heidi) Robison, and Tiffany (Joshua) McEwan; eight nieces and nephews; and one great niece. She was preceded in death by her father, Russell Melvin Robison.

“ Lisa and I were teachers together in Primary. She was so good with the kids, and they loved her, as I did. She was so good to her parents, and all of us around her, and she will be missed. Rest in peace, my dear friend Lisa.

“ I
I've known Lisa since her family moved to this area. I pray for her Mother, Gloria, and brothers and sisters during this difficult time. I know she and her Father will keep an eye out for them, too.
