

Lloyd John Lewis

January 5, 1994 - July 21, 2019

Lloyd John Lewis, age 25, passed away unexpectedly on July 21, 2019 in Orem, Utah in a tragic motorcycle accident.

Lloyd was born on January 5, 1994 to Richard and Helena Lewis in Pleasanton, California.

One of Lloyd's favorite early memories was standing in Grandpa's motorcycle boots. His grandpa nicknamed him Buzz and he was set for a life of adventure. When Lloyd was 6 years old, his family moved to Yardley, Pennsylvania. He spent lots of time outside building forts with friends, swimming, and playing football. Lloyd participated in the Morrisville Ward Boy Scouts of America Troop 607, where he earned many merit badges and became an Eagle Scout. He was respectful, compassionate, and loyal. Lloyd's presence brought love to all those around him.

Lloyd moved to Utah in 2012, where he continued living a life of adventure. He loved camping, dirt biking, shooting guns, fishing, snowboarding, and getting outside. He loved animals, especially his dog, Ace. Lloyd was a hard worker and went out of his way to help others. Lloyd traveled the world to visit his dear friends and family. He was passionate about making memories and keeping friendships strong, regardless of distance or time apart. Lloyd was extraordinarily empathetic and always had a profound, yet simple, way with words. He always knew what to say to a friend in need and wasn't afraid to say it. He convinced friends and family to move to Utah just to experience the beautiful mountains. For the last 5 years all of Lloyd's immediate family has lived in Utah with him. Lloyd had a deep love for each of his brothers and sisters. He adored his 8 nieces and nephews. He was so happy to be an uncle.

Lloyd was predeceased by his Mormor Kickan and Morfar Nils, Aunt Kelly, Uncle Stephen, cousins (Keller and Landen), and a baby brother.

Lloyd is survived by his parents, Rick and Helena Lewis; sister, Dani (Chandler)

Stoneman; brother, Alec (Megan) Lewis; sister, Richelle (Josh) Macedone; brother, Nils Lewis; sister, Emma Lewis; grandparents, Richard and Carol Lewis; loving girlfriend, Becky Stott and her son, Zoe.

We all miss his loving and genuine spirit and look forward to the time when we can be with him again.
