Comments

“ My cousin, Lucy, will always be remembered by me, as a loving, caring person, always willing to engage in thoughtful conversation and respectful listening. And although time, family and geography precluded a closer relationship, I always felt a kindred bond. One such bond was our mutual interest in family genealogy and history..

I embrace Lucy, in spirit, as she moves on to a new expression of her life.

“ My sister's life was so important to so many! She was a devoted wife and mother to six AMAZING children, a devoted Christ follower, and a brilliant scholar. She held two Master's degrees, and one undergrad degree--achieved while raising her six children on her own (and working). Her precious children she left to continue her legacy are Tanya (Shannon) Diotte of Sheridan, AR, Christine (Jon) Shultz of San Diego, CA, Richard/Ricky (Lindsay) Busker, San Antonio, TX, Jennie Busker (Doug) of Chicago, IL, Sarah (Justin) Busker Lovato, Lehi, UT, and Emily Busker, South Jordan, UT. She also adored her grandchildren and was so proud of them all!

She was predeceased by her father, Sam Montana, Sr., her mother, Donna Monroe Montana, and her brother, Ron Montana (all of Rockford, IL). She is survived by her husband Stan Duncan (Pleasant Valley, UT), brother, James (Marian) Montana of Roscoe, IL, her sister Mary Anne (Carl) Marker of Aurora, IL and her sister Theresa (Brad) Carlson of Loves Park, IL.

Lucy left us all a legacy of kindness, love and determination to achieve our goals--despite obstacles and despite circumstances. Her work ethic was something to be marveled, and her loving, humble presence, will never be forgotten.

To my sister:

I love you so much sis! We'll spend many many years catching up in paradise some day. I thank you for everything you did for me growing up, and for everything you did for mom and dad--even with everything you had on your plate. You never complained and I don't know how you even did it. You're a woman of great dignity who has the deepest caring for family. We were so lucky God shared you with us for as long as He did.

See you soon sis! All my love, Theresa

“ I met Lucy in high school in Rockford, Illinois. When I walked into the LDS church one Sunday I already had a friend. She was always so kind and sweet to everyone. My condolences to her family especially to her son Rick and her sister Mary. From Mary Giometta

“ We, her Auburn classmates, all share in your sorrow. We will miss her at our next reunion just as we did at our 40th. We send our sincere condolences to all of you. She had such generous and loving heart; everyone loved her.
