

Mary Gwen Hone

March 13, 1937 - September 29, 2017

“The Lord closed her eyes and called her home”

Mary Gwen Goodman Hone peacefully returned home September 29, 2017, at the age of 80, to be reunited with her sweetheart who she had been separated for 17 years. She was born on March 13, 1937 in Provo Utah to David Richardson Goodman and Mary Lorenda Thompson. She and her brother David (Dick) Richardson Goodman were raised in Provo, primarily by their very hard working mother as Gwen's father passed away when she was 3-years-old. She graduated from Provo High in 1955. Soon after she met Edward Ted Hone and they were married in the Manti temple on September 13, 1957. As the years went on they were blessed with four children, Shirlene, Wendy, Jed and Collette. She was a dedicated member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and loved serving others. She served in the Primary, as a librarian, as an assistant scout master and her favorite place to serve was with the Cub Scouts. In her own simple way Gwen would quietly serve wherever she saw a need, she has touched many lives both by her service and through her example.

Gwen liked camping with and spending time with her family. She enjoyed crocheting and has made countless afghans for her grandchildren. She was a diligent scrap booker and created complete scrapbooks for each of her grandchildren. She was highly supportive of her children and grand children and rarely missed supporting them in whatever they were doing whether it was a sports event to a recital or a talk in church. She enjoyed going to early morning temple sessions, water aerobics, and the many activities at the Orem and Lindon Senior Centers.

She was preceded in death by the love of her life of 60 years, Ted Hone. She is survived by her brother David Richardson Goodman, and her children Shirlene Lambert, Wendy Lemley, Jed (Vicki) Hone, Collette Villa, 18 Grandchildren and 17 Great-Grandchildren.

The family would like to express great appreciation to the hospice staff, and many great friends and neighbors that have so kindly helped care for our mother.

“ I knew your mother when I worked at the Eldred Center in provo. She was a wonderful women. We need more women like her in this world.

“ What a wonderful woman this gracious lady is. When we moved into the neighborhood with our new family Gwen was there and she was there for everyone no matter what. She is a gentle, kind person. I don't think I have ever heard Gwen complain about anything. We moved out of the neighborhood but the fond memories of the Hones, Days, Sheriffs, Warners, Wilcoxes, Huntsmans, Gordons, Sherwoods, Denys, and more will always be rich in our lives. I had the opportunity to run into Gwen at the Lindon Sr Center a couple of times where her granddaughter volunteered. It was like we hadn't been gone at all. Love to her family at this time. You have a precious mom.

“ What fun memories of your mom. She was the kindness lady and always had a great smile. When we lived next door to the Hones. Gwen would come over and she was always there to help me. When my mom could not come to help me when Ricky was born Gwen stepped up and helped me. I had the baby blues (that is what they called them in our day) all I could do is cry and do nothing. She helped to get through that time.

Ricky loved Gwen. it was after Rick died and Gwen went to the temple Gwen told me she saw Rick and she said he looked at with that Ricky grin. You will be missed greatly Gwen. Our love and prayers go to your children and their families. I'm just so happy I can call Gwen my sister, my friend. Love you.

“ Growing up around Gwen was a wonderful experience. I remember the wonderful sleepovers with Shirlene and have many happy memories. Since moving away I haven't gotten to see Gwen much, but the few visits we had were filled with good memories. Gwen radiated joy to all. I know she has had a happy reunion with Ted and other family members. My love goes to her children, my friends.

“ I'd just like to say Cathryn Gleave, you captured my thoughts so beautifully.
Gwen was the most loving, kind, thoughtful neighbor. She was a neighborhood mom to all.
Recently I had some conversations with her and know she was ready to go be with the love of her life, Ted and her mom and I'm sure my mother, Joan Clark Day who she compassionately served and Cady Gleave are having a joyful reunion.
She loved her family and her faith was pure and strong.
What wonderful childhood memories I have on 521.

“ Gwen you are going to be missed. I am grateful for the gospel because it lets me know I will see you again. I am so glad that you are out of pain and no longer suffering. I love you and I will miss your smile and sweet words you so freely shared. You set your life up where it showed you to be a true disciple of Christ. You blessed my life in so many ways. Thanks for allowing me to be your friend. I am sure you are enjoying being back with your sweetheart. Jed, Wendy, Sharlene, and Collett you will be in my thoughts and prayers. May Go bless and comfort you during this difficult time. I love your mom and have so many fond memories of her “ Gwen loved the youth of the neighborhood. One weekend Marcie Van Cleave's parents were out of town leaving her sister, Cheryl, home alone. She wasn't alone for long. She invited all the neighborhood kids over, and we were having a great time until Gwen crashed the party. She came in, sat in the front room, and proclaimed that she was going to chaperone us. She said she was staying there until everyone had gone home. And she did.

Gwen was a patient and gentle Scoutmother to dozens of boys who liked to hang around the house even when Ted wasn't having an official scout meeting. I liked going to the Hone's because I never got in trouble there. . . like I did at home. Gwen just liked you no matter what.

I miss you, Gwen. You are a great example of living a Christ-like life and of enduring to the end.
