

Nicole Oler

November 3, 1983 - March 1, 2017

Nicole Deborah Oler passed away March 1, 2017 at home in her loving husband's arms. Nicole was born November 3, 1983 to Jan Arguello and Greg Parks in Salt Lake City, Utah. Nicole lived in the Salt Lake Valley during her childhood. She spent most of those years living with her mom, her grandparents and her siblings. Nicole graduated from Valley High School in 2002 and went on to work various jobs until she landed her dream job and began taking care of children as a nanny. Nicole's love of all children was remarkable and was just a glimpse of the mother she would become.

Nicole and Steve were married September 10, 2004 in Sandy, Utah. Nicole met the love of her life, Steve, while he was working at her grandmother's new home in the winter of 2003. She swept him off his feet and after a whirlwind romance they were married. Nicole continued her love of being a nanny after she was married. In January of 2007, Nicole was diagnosed with an Astrocytoma, a form of brain cancer. For many months, Nicole endured surgery and radiation and fought her way back to better health. Nicole's unwavering desire to have a family helped her fight her way back and in one year her tumor showed no new growth.

On September 12, 2008, Nicole and Steve welcomed Brandon Cole Oler into the next chapter of their lives and Nicole's dreams of becoming a mother came true. On July 27, 2010 Mya Jade Oler followed. Nicole was a mother and wife first and foremost and loved every minute of both of those roles.

In the spring of 2012, Nicole's brain cancer returned. After a valiant battle, always with a smile on her face and an amazing attitude, the cancer ultimately took her life.

Nicole was an amazing wife, mother, daughter, sister, friend and so much more to all of those who knew her. Nicole lived her life through the joy of those around her and nothing brought her more pleasure than seeing happiness, especially in her children's faces. Brandon and Mya lit Nicole's world and being their mom allowed her to achieve her life goal.

Those left behind to remember and love her include the loves of her life, Steve, Brandon and Mya; mom, Jan; grandmother, Debbie; father, Greg; siblings, Ashley, Zack, Jacob, Anthony, Annika, Emery and Hillary; along with many uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, family and friends. Waiting for her in heaven were her grandfather, Bill Ritchie and Steve's father, Kirt Oler.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, March 7th, at 11:00 am, at the Jordan Willows 3rd Ward, 496 River Way, Lehi, Utah, where Viewings will be held Monday, March 6th, from 6:00 to 8:00 pm and prior to services on Tuesday from 9:30 to 10:30 am. Interment in Lehi City Cemetery, 1100 North 400 East, Lehi, Utah.

“ It's so hard for me to grasp that you're no longer here with us. That I can't call or text you anymore. I miss you my friend so much! I am grateful you are no longer suffering. I'm happy that I have so many memories of us to keep in my heart. You've always been such an amazing friend, and have meant so much to me! You put up such an amazing fight! Amd did amazing things while battling cancer. Fly high my friend! I can't wait to see you again! I love you Nicole!

“ It was such an honor for me to help support Nicole and her family during the last months of her journey on this earth. I always looked forward to spending time with her, taking her shopping and going out to lunch at Christmas time, helping around the house and just talking and laughing together. I will never forget her sweet spirit and treasure the conversations we had. I'm so grateful she is now free of pain and healthy and happy as she reunites with loved ones who welcomed her home. I will never forget her and the positive influence she has had on my life and can't wait to see her again.

“ I as well felt honored to help Nicole around the house, and will miss dearly the expression of pure joy when she would have hot chocolate with me. She LOVED chocolate with whipped cream. I will always think of you. Girls Time! Shopping, cooking, and having lunch was so special. Til we meet again my friend.
