We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing.
-George Bernard Shaw

This quote rang true in our sweetest father and grandpa who passed away on the morning of June 4th, 2021. He had such a young heart and never stopped playing. We will miss his energy for life that brought fun to any situation. He smiled and talked to everyone he passed, and could make friends everywhere he went. He loved to make people laugh and could smile through any twist and turn that life had to offer.

He spent his younger days enjoying his education as much as the time he spent in the university marching band, being a ski instructor, lifeguard, forest ranger, and track star. He also had a brilliant mind and his true passion was found in teaching Latin and Greek morphemes.

He always had a generous heart and tried to find ways to surprise people with kind gestures. He carried this gift with him throughout his life. He had a gentle way that put people at ease. More than anything, his focus was always on his children and grandchildren. He was quick to compliment, hug and make others feel special. If he loved you, you were enough.

He lived such a beautiful and full life and could not be more excited to be reunited with his sweetheart in heaven!

“ Loved Bob! He was a fun person to be around. He raised an awesome daughter that has become my daughter-in-law and friend. I love her as my own. Bob loved his grandkids and was generous and kind to them always. They all love him too! He will be missed in my family as well as his. I am grateful he was a part of my life and that we could share the love of his family. God bless you Bob as you begin the next phase of your eternity. Your memory will live in those you left behind. Love you! Lisa Miller
