

Shandy June Winterton

March 24, 1969 - October 21, 2019

Shandy June Wilkinson Winterton was born on March 24, 1969. She was a sweet, curly-haired red-head and she instantly stole the heart of her loving parents, Randy and Mary. They were madly in love with their baby girl. She was perfect. Sadly, that perfect little one tragically lost her daddy when she was only three. Shandy reunited with him on October 21, 2019.

Shandy had the heart of a child and the soul of an artist. She could create beauty effortlessly. Her most notable art exhibits that she leaves behind are known as Shantel, Joshua and Aushel. Along with her grandson, Ayden, these works created her favorite story where her happy place took shape. Being a mother and grandmother meant the world to her. She had prepared for those roles at a young age. She had been a fierce and loving protector to her younger siblings: Shelly, Stacey, Nathan and Julie. She valued family.

Shandy was so good with little children, outcasts and pets. She collected all three and loved each and every one of them she found. She had a deep need to help others.

Shandy never excluded anyone and brought all ages together. She used her role as a big sister and cousin to unite and create amazing gatherings and memories. She definitely felt 10 and up were worthy of learning how to drive a stick. When Shandy was in charge, a BBQ planned for Friday night may have turned in to a 3-week adventure and it was always worth it when all was said and done. Plus, everyone would get a free haircut, color, perm or make-over. Her heart was big and welcoming. She was talented and loved to learn new things and share with others. And while all of that is true, the truth is that we actually lost our Shandy long ago and life has been really hard for a long time. We have missed her for many years. We will gather on Sunday to say goodbye to our Shandy, a grandmother, a mother, a daughter, a sister, a niece, an aunt, a cousin, and a friend. We will hold space for her beautiful soul as we acknowledge the death of her mental illness, her pain and her struggles.

Services will be held Sunday, October 27, 2019 from 2:00pm-3:00pm at Utah Valley Mortuary, 1966 West 700 North, Lindon, UT 84042.

Comments

“ I lived with Shandy for a few months in Utah. I decided to look her up and found this instead. I'm sorry to her mom and kids. I talked to her sister Shelly and her son, her mom and a few cousins. I hoped that she would get the help she needed. Deep down she was a good person. I'm sure you all knew. but Shandy loved her children more than anything.

“ I must say you have bought a wonderful sweet, caring and ambitious girl to my sweet boy Tyrell and I wish we could have meet and talked about their childhood, but I see in aushel she has good values and endless love for our son. I'm sure she will not disappoint you in any future plans she or they have for each other. I love her as my daughter and I'll keep her as safe as I can, Rest In Peace . Angel Herring
