“ Shane was tough as nails. When he was younger he and Chantel stayed with us in West valley for a while. He had a love for football growing up . We used to play across the street at the hunter Jr high school. He always was the fastest I could never guard him. I remember he loved Jerry Rice. One day when were out throwing the football in the street I know dangerous. I was guarding Shane on a post route Clint has always had the best arm . He threw it right to him I was finally caught up and tackled Shane , his chin scraped the pavement there was blood coming down his chin. My response was Holy cow!! Dude are you ok, his response was nice tackle let's play some more. I will always remember the times I had with Shane but will never understand how he ended up sleeping on a rock whenever we were camping, and how he loved it. I love you Shane I wish we could of hung out in the pit of hell and snuck grandma's candy still .

“ Our family will forever be grateful for the love that Shane showed our family, particularly the love and kindness he showed our son Grayson as his baseball coach. What a blessing it will be for our son to look back on all the memories shared with Shane and his family, and lessons learned through baseball and a great coach that loved him. Til we meet again, Coach Shane.
