

Stacy Dee Jones

September 28, 1981 - June 2, 2018

Stacy Dee Carrington Jones, 36, passed away peacefully from this life the evening of Saturday, June 2, 2018 in Orem, Utah. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family and friends in the last moments of her life. Stacy was born in Delta, Utah to Roland and Nena Carrington on September 28, 1981. She was the second eldest sibling of two sisters and one brother; Autumn, Tonia, and Cody.

She graduated from Delta high school in 2000. She then attended Southern Utah University for a short time. Stacy later moved to Provo, Utah to live with her sister for a while. She worked and cared for children in her sisters neighborhood. Stacy later met Brian Jones and was married and soon after blessed with a sweet little boy Wyatt Adam Jones in 2006, and in 2010 cutie pie Weston Charles Jones was born. Stacy's boys are the absolute love of her life and her reason for everything. Years later she met Brandon Elmer who has shown her some of the best years of her life and has been the most caring and loving companion that she could've ever asked for during her last years here on earth. They were blessed with a sweet boy Grayson Cruz Elmer in 2015. Stacy said he brought so much happiness and love and peace to their family. She was so thankful for and so in love with him.

Stacy was the greatest example of everything that is good in this world. The world will not be the same without her in it. She saw the good in everyone and always saw their potential. She loved the little things in life and found the humor in everything! During the last two years fighting the hardest battle I believe anyone could fight she never complained, was never bitter or mean or negative. She lived through it all with such grace, courage, strength, humor and humility that it is even hard to comprehend, or describe. She is truly our hero!

Stacy is a wife, a mother, a sister, an aunt, and a friend to so many! If ever there was a Christ-like person to walk the earth it was her. Her kids and her family were and I'm sure still are her reason for everything. She wouldn't miss anything her kids were in no matter how bad she was feeling she wanted to be there and participate and support them. She loved her nieces and nephews with all her heart and they loved her with all their hearts as well. She treated them as if they were her own and was sincerely interested in them and their lives. She was so excited for any little victory in their lives and wanted the best for them. She was always building their self-esteem and the self-esteem of everyone around her for that matter.

Stacy is survived by her loving and devoted partner, Brandon Elmer; her three beautiful boys, Wyatt Adam Jones (12), Weston Charles Jones (8), Grayson Cruz Elmer (3); her three beautiful stepchildren, Annie Marie Elmer, Ethan James Elmer, and Dakota Jack Elmer; siblings, Autumn C. Jensen (Michael), Tonia C. Turner (Josh), Cody Carrington (Liz); parents, Nena (Alan) Simmons and Roland Carrington; lots of loving nieces and nephews, family and friends. She was preceded in death by her angel infant nephew, Jonah Gabriel Turner; her Grandma and Grandpa Carrington (Cora & Harry); her grandfather, Lorraine Hardy, and her sweet aunts, Betty and JoAnn Carrington who we believe, without a shadow of a doubt, were there to welcome her home.

Memorial Services will be held Wednesday, June 13, 2018 at 11:00 am, at the Eagle Mountain Second Ward Chapel, 4142 Lake Mountain Road, Eagle Mountain, Utah.

“ I will never forget Stacy's help when she cared for Carter, our special needs little boy. No one could be more patient or kind with both of us. It was a difficult job for her, I pressured her to do intensive therapy with Carter. She handled it beautifully, so skilled & compassionate. We had a relative who could be rude & difficult, & I never heard Stacy say an unkind word (about anyone for that matter). She lived next door with her sister Autumn for a few years. How grateful I am that Stacy was readily available for anything I needed during that difficult time. I can't forget that wonderful time Stacy & Autumn lived next door & the closeness we shared. A bit of heaven in this hard life.

“ Tale of a Fairy Princess
When I think of Stacy now I think of her as a fairy princess. She was all light and love. 💜 All she ever wanted was to be loved and give love.
The world lost a truly incredible woman who spent her whole life putting others first without asking for a thing in return. A woman who loved her boys, her companion, and family and tried to make sure her boys had everything they could ever want, including and especially her devotion.
I wish I could be more like Stacy and not live in such fear of the future. She made a big impact on so many lives especially this Momma. I could not be more proud of Stacy . I hope she can help me to breathe again. I have my own fight ahead of me. I need strength, I need her light. My goal is to try to be more like her. To keep fighting the fight ,and loving with all my might! I wish they could have saved our Fairy Princess, and I hope they will find a cure. I can't imagine anyone could ever be loved more!💜
Love forever,( your kitty cat )Momma

“ I will miss my little sister so much! She was such an amazing example of unconditional love! She had a love of family like no one else I've ever known. It didn't matter what you were doing or not doing she just wanted to be with you. Stacy honestly never met a person she didn't like! There was never a person who met Stacy who didn't love her instantly as well. She has a way of caring about and loving others, being sincere and genuinely interested and concerned about them like I have not seen in anyone else the way I saw it in her. She loves her boys with all her heart and they were her reason for living long before her cancer diagnosis. The reason she fought so hard I know without a shadow of a doubt was for them. I hope I can honor her legacy in some small way. My goal now is just to make her proud and to let people know, especially her boys, and never let anyone forget how amazing she is! Stacy loved the little things (lip gloss and new underwear 😭), she loved the holidays, summer, music, and the beach. She just loved life and was happy to be alive!
I love you sis and I know that you are with me and will continue to be with me until we meet again! XOXO I love you to the moon and back and as big as the sky!
