“ Wayne had a good sense of humor. He liked to cook and care for his family. He was very kind and helpful to his mother-in-law, always trying to help her with her computer problems. He will be missed very much.

“ Dear Wayne!!

I am so sorry for not identifying that you were trying to reach out to me in your time of need. I am so very sorry! These past few months I have felt there was something wrong, but I could not determine what it was.

When I finally made a connection with the promptings I was getting to check the obituaries for Utah County and saw your picture, I knew why I was being prompted. By then it was too late and I missed such a special opportunity.

You said we had a connection and I do believe we do....This is why I kept feeling there was something wrong and you were not well. Last time we talked was after Valentine's day and I asked you if you were well and your response was I have good days and bad days. Now all of your days can be good Wayne...

I missed out on the opportunity to be your friend and show you God's love and assist you through your journey.

May you sleep in peace knowing you will be able to be resurrected and for the happiness you felt by choosing to go to the temple. It is interesting to me how people will come into your life and then leave and when they do they leave a lasting memory full of lessons, friendship and love.

I will always remember you and the time I shared with you when you were preparing to go to the temple. It was a special time. I could tell you were so very happy.

Perhaps one of these days we will meet again and can be the friends that I am sure we were meant to be.

Until then do the work and know you have touched so many peoples life's. People love you and your decisions will have an impact on those who love you so very much.

Peace Wayne!

Betty
